

Coaching for female scholars at the Faculty of Humanities, Social Sciences, and Theology

A successful scholarly career leading to a professorship requires not only scholarly excellence but also the development of strategic skills and other competences. Individual advice from a professional coach can be an important component for positioning oneself in the scholarly community and finding a suitable career path.

We are therefore pleased to be able to offer coachings for female scholars from the funds provided as part of the target agreements 2023-2027:

- Target group: Female junior researchers in their PhD/ Doctoral, post-doc or habilitation phase as well as female W1-professors at the Faculty of Humanities, Social Sciences, and Theology are eligible to apply.
- The coaching features individual counseling in questions of career planning in academia.
- Scope: The coaching consists of up to three individual sessions (90 minutes each).
- Coach: Coaches with relevant expertise in higher education in Germany can be identified by the applicants or in cooperation with the Büro für Gender und Diversity (BGD), the Fortbildungszentrum Hochschullehre (FBZHL), and the Graduiertenzentrum.

Application

Junior female scholars may submit their application to the Women's Representatives<sup>1</sup> of the Faculty of Humanities, Social Sciences, and Theology, Dr. Katharina Gerund and Dr. Cleophea Ferrari, by May 17, 2024.

The following documents should be included:

- CV and, if applicable, a list of publications
- Letter of motivation (max. 1 DIN A4 page) as well as information on preferred coaches, if applicable.

Please send your application by e-mail (PDF) to phil-frauenbeauftragte@fau.de

Contact

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the faculty's advisor to the Women's Representatives:
